INTRODUCTION

IT’S OFTEN SAID THAT “BUSINESS” IS BUILT
ON RELATIONSHIPS. IN TENNESSEE, WE COULDN’T AGREE MORE.

After all, it’s that first handshake that tells you everything you need to know about a person. The same is true for a brand. Without the proper introduction and representation, it is impossible to form a connection.

Our brand is more than an identity. It’s the visual voice of our organization. It encompasses our core values and it is reflective of the unmatched experience of doing business in Tennessee.

As the strongest touchpoint of the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development, it is only proper that our brand work just as hard as our employees and partners across the world.

The approach defined within the brand style and identity guidelines ensures that promise. Together, we’ll establish a unified voice that makes TNECD familiar to any business.

THIS IS THE GLOBAL FACE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN TENNESSEE. IT IS A KEY ELEMENT OF OUR BRAND IDENTITY. IT MUST ALWAYS BE DISPLAYED PROPERLY AND CONSISTENTLY.

01.

- Do not outline or stroke the logo
- Do not change the color of the logo
- Do not put the logo in a shape
- Do not add elements to the logo

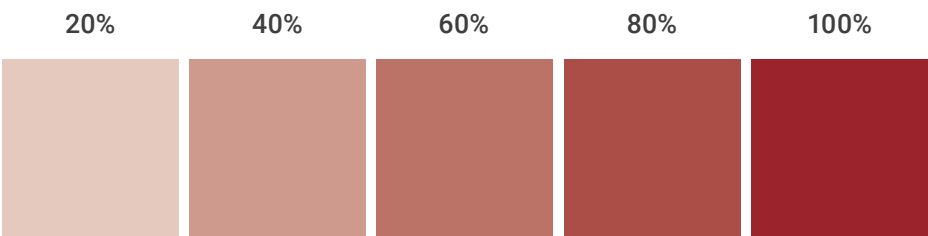

04.

COLORING & TEXTURE

THERE’S NOTHING SUBTLE ABOUT MOMENTUM.

As a result, It is only fitting that our brand colors are equally reflective of Tennessee’s business climate. The color red has long represented energy and innovation. Charcoal Black is bold, established and denotes strength and stability. Together, this distinct color palate reinforces our world-class reputation for economic success. These colors should be used most frequently in all design layouts.

For a secondary design element or background, you should always use the brand texture. The texture is for a lighter background and black text.

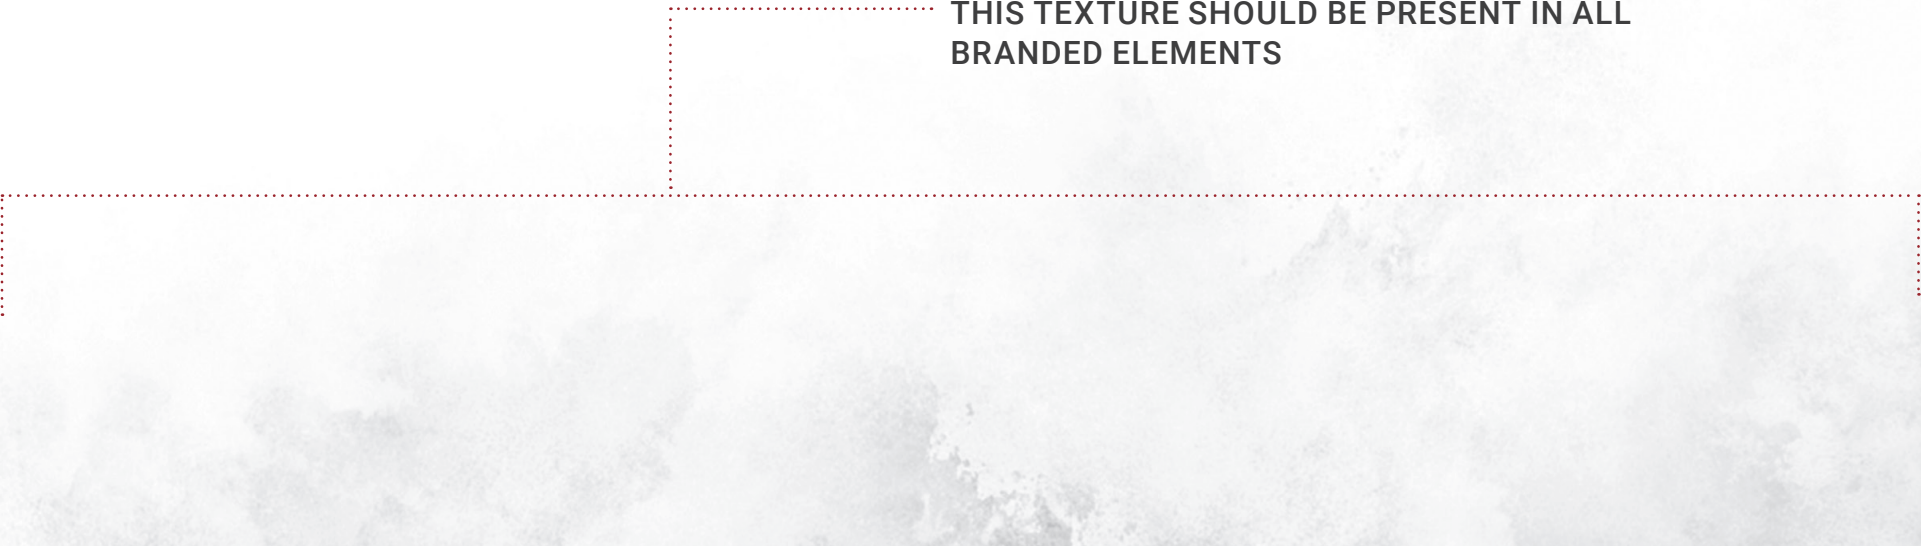

DEEP AMBER — COLOR CODE:
CMYK: C-0% M-76% Y-71% K39-%
Pantone: 7622 C
RGB: R-155 G-37 B-45
